DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-25 are pending in this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 6 is redundant to claim 11 and should be deleted.

In claim 8, the term “production runs” are vague and confusing as to what it is referring to. Clarification and appropriate amendments are requested. The same issue applies to claims 16 and 23.

In claim 8, the term “the chamber plasma processing region components cleaning step” lacks antecedent basis. The same issue applies to claims 16 and 23.

In claim 9, the parameters are confusing. Specifically, what is turbo referring to and what are W side, Ar side, O2 side, SiH4 side referring to? Applicant should clarify and amend appropriately. The same issue applies to claims 17 and 24.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over

Rossman et al. (6,121,161). Rossman discloses a method for reducing contaminants into a plasma deposition chamber by seasoning the chamber with a protective layer (col.3 lines 3-15). The layer consists of silicon nitride, silicon oxynitride, and a phosphorous-doped silicate glass (col.3 lines 23-25). However, the reference fails to teach USG and FSG.

In the background of the invention, it is noted that the present invention is useful for improving the quality of undoped silicate glass and can apply to other films including fluorosilicate glass (col.1 lines 13-24). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to utilize USG and FSG given the teaching that these are interchangeable in Rossman's process with the expectation of obtaining similar results.

In claims 2-9, the applicant requires specific thicknesses, flow rates, power and times. These parameters are listed in col.9 line1 – col.10 line 40. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have determined the optimum value of a cause effective variable through routine experimentation in the absence of a showing of criticality.

The limitations of claims 10-25 have been addressed above.

See et al. (6,380,066), M'Saad et al. (6,413,871), Gupta (6,121,163) has been cited for additional information.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-25 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-16 of U.S. Patent No. 6,602,560.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the elimination of a high density plasma CVD chamber is an obvious variation.
